DAMODAR VALLEY CORPORATION

AMENDMENTS

The 10th April 1964

No. 52—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (14 of 1948), the Corporation hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following further amendments to the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations, published with the Damodar Valley Corporation notification No. 5 dated the 28th January, 1957, namely :—

In the said Regulations—

(1) In Regulation 2, for clause (8) the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"(8) 'Family', for the purposes of these Regulations, other than Regulations 60 to 70, means the employee's wife or husband, as the case may be, residing with the employee and legitimate children and step-children residing with & wholly dependent upon the employee and, except for the purposes of Regulations 54 to 57, includes the employee's parents, sisters and minor brothers residing with and wholly dependent on the employee.

Note : (1) Where an employee has more than one wife, only one wife shall be included in the term 'Family'.

(2) An adopted child shall be considered to be a legitimate child if, under the personal law of the employee, adoption is legally recognised as conferring on the child the status of a natural child".

(II) In Regulation 60, after clause (a), the following clause shall be inserted, namely :—

"(aa) 'family' for purposes of Regulations 60 to 70 means an employee's wife or husband, as the case may be and the parents, legitimate children, and step-children of the employee wholly dependent upon the employee.

Note : (1) The term 'children' includes children adopted legally.

(2) Where an employee has more than one wife, all the wives shall be included in the term 'family'."

(III) After Regulation 60, the following Regulations shall be inserted, namely :—

"60A. Where the husband or wife of an employee is employed under the Central Government or any State Government or in the Defence or Railway services or in any of the corporate bodies financed partly or wholly by the Central Government or any State Government or in any local body or private organisation, which provides medical services for its employees, that husband or wife, as the case may be, shall be entitled to chose either the medical facilities admissible under these Regulations or those provided by his or her employer."

"60B. (1) Where both the husband and the wife are employees, they as well as their eligible dependents shall be entitled to avail themselves of the medical concessions provided under these Regulations according to his or her status.

(2) For the purposes of clause (1), the husband and wife shall furnish to their respective administrative authorities a joint declaration as to who will prefer the claim for reimbursement of medical expenses incurred on account of the medical attendance and treatment in respect of them and their eligible dependents and such declaration shall be submitted in duplicate and a copy thereof shall be recorded in the personal file of each of them in their respective offices. In the case of officers, a copy of the joint declaration shall also be forwarded to the Accounts Officer concerned. The joint declaration shall remain in force till such time as it is revised on the express request in writing by both the husband and the wife".
